New Friends' Pix

gabbi loves to show off her friends on her very own gabbisboutique.com website.

Even before Mom opened the store, gabbi's website was well under way. Making new friends has always been the best part of the gabbi's Boutique experience, and gabbi's website has become the perfect place to showcase all of gabbi's new Precious Paws pals.

If you find yourself "surfing the net" sometime, stop by gabbi's website, and meet all the friends she as made in the last several months.

Also, if you have a picture of your Precious Paws that you would like to share, please email it to gabbi@gabbisboutique.com so she can post it on her website for all to see!

Special Hours: gabbi's Brother Is Playing Basketball

We can't stand to miss our favorite basketball star!

After much deliberation, gabbi's Mom is hoping that all of gabbi's Precious Paws pals will understand if she closes gabbi's Boutique at 4:00 pm (two hours early) on Tuesday, January 24 and Friday, January 25.

You see, gabbi's two-legged big brother Seth will be playing basketball for Henderson County High, and we are so proud of him.

gabbi certainly does not want anyone to be inconvenienced, so please tell everyone you know about the special hours on these dates.

In the meantime, if you need the best food, treats, toys and clothes on those days, please give gabbi's

Mom a call at 270-827-1567 or email her at mom@gabbisboutique.com. gabbi promises to make special arrangements for you to get what you need when you need it.

Thank you for letting Mom take these days off early, and we can't wait to see you at gabbi's Boutique soon!

Candles for Canines?

Candles at a pet boutique? Are you crazy? (A question Dad still asks . . . often.)

gabbi has found the perfect solution for even the slightest pet odor. The Pet Odor Eliminator products are a

The scents, on the other hand, are the real treat. gabbi has heard from several friends who swear the candles are some of the finest candles anywhere.

Why Is There a "*" Next To My Name?!

Have you ever noticed an asterisk after your name or the name of your Pre-

Paws?

Have you ever wondered what that could mean?

Maybe it's a special notation that one of gabbi's perfect four-legged best friends lives here!

That little star actually means that you are enrolled in gabbi's Grub Club, the best way to purchase the best food for your Precious Paws.

Natura (the makers of Innova, Evo and the Mother Nature treats) has long been regarded as the leading manufacturer of truly wholesome, no-filler, meat-based, high quality foods. gabbi's Grub Club makes feeding the best more affordable.

As a member of gabbi's Grub Club, you get a free bag (or can) of dog or cat food for every ten that you purchase. Although the free bag can only be as big as the smallest bag in the previous ten, gabbi suggested the idea as way to thanks to her loyal customers with what amounts to a ten percent discount.

In many cases, gabbi's Grub Club makes it less expensive to feed "the good stuff," and that put a smile on Mom and Dad's faces while the Precious Paws in your house can smile because they eat so well!
