If Mom Misses Your Call . . .

As everyone knows, Mom loves to talk about Precious Paws and their food, clothes, toys, treats . . . you name it! Any time you have a question, want more information or even just want to chat about your best friend, please give Mom a call at 827-1567.

Occasionally Mom might miss your call if she is helping someone in the store. Mom and gabbi want you to know that they are very sorry if they do not get to answer your call; but they do want to hear from you.

If you call and hear Mom's message on the answering machine - especially during store hours - please leave Mom and me a message.

Your call is important to us, and gabbi promises that Mom or Dad or Granny or Aunt Susan will call you back as soon as possible.

A Great Start To The Holiday Season!

The holiday season got off to a fantastic start at gabbi's Boutique with gabbi's Holiday Open House on the Friday and Saturday following Thanksgiving Day.

Everyone who stopped by got to "Pick a Paw" from enjoyed treats just for them: punch and hand-dipped Christmas pretzels.

Of course, Darrell Watkins Photography was certainly one of the weekend's highlights. Mr. Watkins took beautiful Christmas pictures of the Precious Paws guests.

The crowd gathers as Precious Paws strike holiday poses for photographer Darrell Watkins.

Ssssshhhhh . . . gabbi Has A Secret!

Will you be buying for a Precious Paws during the holidays? Maybe you have a granddog or cat to plan for, or even your own four-legged best friend to think of this season.

gabbi has hidden some savings just for you, but you have to find them!

Want a hint? Head to www.gabbiboutique.com. Once there, remember the "secret" theme. With a little luck, you might find where gabbi has hidden a special treat that just might make this holiday season a little easier on your pocket book!

Who Wears The Pants?

One of the great attractions to gabbi's Boutique is the ability to have a custom-made, hand-fitted outfit tailored just for your Precious Paws. If your pet gets chilled easily, needs to stay dry in the rain or just favors a fashionable look, gabbi's Mom can help you design the perfect attire for your four-legged best friend.

While there have been many challenges presented to Mom and many of those have been tried with mixed levels of success, none has been as intriguing as pants.

The "pants" idea was suggested to Mom in the pre-store days. She and Dad spent many hours debating how the fabric could be cut and the design sewn so the final result would fit on the back legs of a dog so the dog could still walk comfortably.

Bailey Black models his new pants with matching vest and cuffs. Snappy!

After many attempts, the formula for these "doggy drawers" is finally coming together. Thanks to the help and patience of Andrea (Bailey's Mom), gabbi's Mom tailored a snappy pair of trousers that fit Bailey just right!

"Mom, do these pants make my butt look big?"

Of course, the cuffs and pockets have to match the vest for that "gabbi's Boutique touch," but no one could pull off the look as well one of gabbi's favorite male models, Mr. Bailey Black!
